Geo. T. Beall, Jr., the able attorney for the town of White Oaks vs. Tomlinson, Davidson, et al, has won the case for the town. Mr. Beall deserves credit for the course he has pursued in the matter. He has labored under many difficulties, paying costs out of his own pocket-something unusual for a lawyer to do, we believe-but the Colonel knew that he was working in a just cause-for the people-and the citizens of White Oaks are not likely to forget it.
